

Don't Fumble During the Big Game

Super Bowl Sunday is one of America's biggest sporting events.

It is also a day where alcoholic ads and the party atmosphere might influence youth to engage in underage drinking.

- Talk with your youth about the impact of underage drinking.
- Start a conversation and set clear boundaries.
- Parents remember that you have the greatest influence on your youth. What you say and do matters!! TALK THEY HEAR YOU
